UNION MUST BE HUMBLED.

Entire College Will See the Team Win at Schenectady Next Saturday.

On Saturday, at Schenectady, Hamilton meets Union in the critical game of the season. Here are the scores of former Hamilton-Union games, and the records of both teams for the season:

Former scores:
1893, Hamilton 14, Union 6.
1897, Hamilton 4, Union 4.
1899, Hamilton 0, Union 0.
1902, Hamilton 31, Union 0.
1903, Hamilton 28, Union 0.
1904, Hamilton 5, Union 0.
1905, Hamilton 17, Union 0.
1907, Hamilton 6, Union 0.
1908, Hamilton 6, Union 18.
1909, Hamilton 0, Union 0.
Total, Hamilton 111, Union 28.

This year's scores:
Williams 29, Union 0.
Middlebury 6, Union 18.
Rochester 8, Union 18.
Stevens 0, Union 8.
Total, Union 27, Opponents 43.
Hamilton 20, Clarkson Tech. 0.
Hamilton 0, Hobart 17.
Hamilton 2, Rochester 5.
Hamilton 0, R. P. I. 12.
Total, Hamilton 22, Opponents 34.

The only games which can be used as a basis of comparison are the two Rochester games, in which the comparative scores give Hamilton greater strength.

Hamilton will go on the field with its best team in the best condition of the season. Drummond and Harper will probably be in the lineup and the rest of the Varsity men except Peters.

Union has but four veterans, Brown Vedder, O'Connor and Riley. Their line is reputed to be strong from tackle to tackle, but they are said to lack offensive power in the backfield and ends. Their style of play should be somewhat familiar as they are coached by Regnier, Brown's All-American end for 1910. Captain Brown is drop-kicking consistently this year, scoring all nine points in the Union victory over Stevens.

The probable line-up follows:

UNION.		HAMILTON.
	Center.
Vedder.		Martin.
	Right guard.
Griffin.		Potter.
	Right tackle.
Sellman.		Drummond.
	Right end.
Atkin.		Roberts.
	Left guard.
Branson.		Thompson.
	Left tackle.
O'Conner.		D. S. Root.
	Left end.
Riley.		Burdick.
	Fullback.
Congdon.		Sidle, Capt.
	Right halfback.
Brown, Capt.		Knox.
	Left halfback.
Sarvey.		Harper.
	Quarterback.
Faubairi.		Stone.

Union is planning quite a celebration on the day of the game. The "Freshman Parade" postponed from University Day on account of bad weather, will be held. In this parade the Freshmen, in costume, take off members of the faculty and prominent students. The men of the Albany departments, the Law School, School of Pharmacy and the Medical College will be at the game three hundred strong.

Every Hamilton man who can acquire the necessary funds is bound to see the game. Saturday Noon Chapel will be held on Thursday afternoon to permit everyone to get away. A round-trip ticket costs $3.12. The best trains are these:

Leave Utica.	Arrive Schenectady.
10:53 a. m.	1:23 p. m.
11:51 a. m.	1:35 p. m.
12:21 p. m.	2:02 p. m.

The game will be called at three o'clock.

—All gym. shows have been called off for the remainder of the year. Official figures show that the Sophomores captured 24 men while the Freshmen were amused nine times by the Sophomores.

FIRST FOR ST. LAWRENCE.

Terrible Condition of the Field Favored Heavier Team—Touchdown Gained by Fluke.

On a field surrounded by a parapet of gigantic snowballs which the College had rolled up Friday afternoon, Hamilton and St. Lawrence battled desperately for victory last Saturday. To say that the gridiron was slippery is to convey little conception of the condition of the ground. Alumni who were present said that the field was in worse shape than it has been since the Rochester game in 1902.

Slipping and sliding the Hamilton men fought hard to withstand the line plunging of the heavier St. Lawrence team and that they succeeded is attested to by the fact that the touchdown gained by St. Lawrence was due to an intercepted forward pass—our goal line was but once in danger from straight football.

The story of the game is quickly told. The play in the first quarter demonstrated that the superior weight of the St. Lawrence men was greatly advantageous. Hamilton, unable to gain consistently, was forced to punt soon after the kick-off. The St. Lawrence attack showed unexpected strength. Off-tackle plunges by Canfield and short end-runs by Williams gained several first downs but Welch soon had to punt. Thereafter the ball traveled up and down the field. Now and then there was a short gain but punting was largely resorted to by both quarterbacks. Knox, tho outpunted, kept our goal-line free from danger by his clever running back of kicks.

In the second quarter Coach Moore sent in several substitutes who allowed Canfield and Sweet to force the ball down to our 10-yard line on off-tackle plays. Here a 15-yard penalty for holding by visitors probably saved a touchdown as St. Lawrence was gaining consistently. Hamilton punted out of danger, but soon recovered the ball near mid-field. Welch intercepted a forward pass and ran

CHESS CLUB ACTIVE.

Last Friday evening the Chess Club was entertained by Mr. Frank Watson of Clinton. Mr. Watson has always been actively associated with Hamilton's chess teams, and with his help they have never lost a match, altho they have played teams from Syracuse, Cornell and Rochester. It was also largely due to Mr. Watson that Dr. Rice presented to the College the handsome chess outfit in Silliman Hall. That gift also carries with it the privilege of entering a tournament conducted by Dr. Rice in New York City, in which Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Columbia are represented. To further stimulate the interest in the College Chess Team Mr. Watson has offered to present a gold stick pin yearly to the best player in college.

At the meeting it was decided to start the Fall Tournament Monday, November 14. All men who desire to enter it should endeavor to become members of the Club before that date. However, for those who do not obtain membership before then a special tournament will be conducted. After the regular tournament is finished the three high men of the special tournament will have the privilege of challenging any man in the club. Thus every man of worth will be given an opportunity of competing for the team. However, it is desired that every man who has any ability at all in the game should present his challenge at once and if possible secure his membership before the regular tournament begins. The men now in the Chess Club are: Sheffield, '11, Adams, Dubourdieu, Grant and Plant, '12; Clark, Griswold and Clapp, '13; Callahan, Dayton and Walker, '14. This list may be changed very soon. Getman, '11, Blackmar, Groves and Woods, '13, have already issued challenges and begun their matches. Adams, '12, is secretary and will receive challenges.

—Wilson, '09, has just accepted a position with the Bell Telephone Company in their Syracuse office.

Now for the Union game! The football season has been an uphill fight, past difficulties, misfortunes and disappointments. This week we reach the summit where a single victory will justify the struggles of the past two months. A victory over Union means a successful season. Colgate, passing from our class and from our ideals, has passed from our schedule, but the fighting spirit which animated Hamilton victories over Colgate should be conserved and invigorated to the defeat of Union. Do you remember how the Hamilton team of 1908 outweighed, out-skilled, but not out-fought, held Colgate for a long first half to no score? Do you realize that this year's team is stronger and faster than that of 1908; that Union's strength can in no way compare to Colgate's? If the Garnet holds half the fighting inspiration of the Maroon, the Buff and Blue will fight to victory.

But the team must not do it alone. The Rochester game proved the value of enthusiastic support. We must have even louder and certainly better organized rooting at Schenectady. On the Hill here, the team knew that continuous, rapid-fire cheering was for their encouragement. At Schenectady there will be besides Union College, the men from the University department at Albany, in all some six hundred disorganized rooters. To meet their noise, we must have a body of men at Schenectady prepared to cheer in absolute unison, but with the strength of a thousand. We should have one hundred and fifty men to cheer Hamilton to victory. The responsibility rests on every man to do his share.

Union is not weak. She has improved since the Rochester game. We do not look for a walkaway. We look for a man's fight, where every ounce of strength, every impulse of nerve will be necessary to bring the victory to the best team, which is, we believe, the team we are going down to cheer for.

Everybody out, then, every day this week. Get the new songs and yells in shape. Get your lungs and throats hardened to the strain. Buy your ticket, pack your suit case, go with the team and stay with it till the game is won.

Coasting on the third of November promises a long and heavy winter. Winter term is naturally somewhat monotonous, and since intercollegiate basketball has been abolished, the College has had no absorbing interest. Intramural basketball has so far failed to arouse united interest, and failed to give the majority of the College the exercise that should be available. We cannot hibernate. The joys of dormitory life are many when the wind is howling outside and the fire roaring on the hearth, but we should have a sport attractive enough to bring men out into the exhilarating keenness of the winter air. Of course we coast, but coasting becomes too much of a practicality to be a real sport.

Did you ever have a sub-Freshman ask you where you skate up at Hamilton? If he did, you probably mumbled something about how good the coasting is. There is no reason why we should not have skating on the Hill this winter. If College sentiment is strongly behind the movement there should be no obstacle to the banking and flooding of the athletic field. Once flooded, let Nature do the rest, and we would have a rink large enough to accommodate the whole College. And we believe most of the College would be there.

This matter was brought up last year, but too late for effective action. The time to act is now. Talk the matter over. The Faculty authorities last year signified their willingness to co-operate, but it was found that the supply of the College reservoir was too low to furnish the water. If the College takes early action in this matter there is little doubt that the necessary provision can be made and Hamilton men will for the first time enjoy skating as an all-winter sport.

We have a new custom—at least, since the Freshmen promise to do their part next year in continuing the event, we expect that an underclass Smoker to celebrate Hallowe'en will become a fixture. It is certainly an agreeable departure from the time-worn habit of recognizing the anniversary by indiscreetly "breaking loose".

We do not believe that men upon entering college leave behind their love of excitement—it is not desirable that they should. Occasional excitements like gym. shows and rows enliven the usually sedate routine of life on the Hill. But "excitement" such as took place on Hallowe'en last year might be considerably altered and still provide sufficient outlet for super-buoyant spirit and energy. No participant in last year's celebration could next day have felt particularly proud of his exploits on the previous night. Moreover, as was afterwards discovered, he had to pay dearly for his night's entertainment.

There is no better criterion of a college than the opinion of the residents of the locality in which it is situated. How long before the people of Clinton will cease to resent the destruction of property last year?

Whoever planned the substitution of a peaceful Smoker for the rampant recklessness customary on that night is to be commended for his good sense.

- At a meeting of the Freshman class held last Wednesday the following officers were elected: President, Albert S. Robinson, Malone, N. Y.; Vice-president, George B. Ogden, Utica, N. Y.; Secretary, Lee H. Bristol, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Treasurer, Hugh Booth, Yokohama, Japan.

thirty-five yards for a touchdown. No goal was kicked.

Thruout the second half the team braced and outplayed St. Lawrence in all departments of the game except kicking. The line discovered that since the slippery field gave no foothold from which to brace, the only way to stop St. Lawrence was to fall under the interference.

During the fourth quarter Hamilton continually threatened the opponents' goal line but was held back by the excellent punting of Welch. The last two minutes of play were heartrendingly disappointing. McLean got the ball on a fumbled kick only eight yards from the goal line. Knox cross-bucked for five yards. Robinson found a hole for two more, but Sweet broke thru and stopped the next play for no gain. Soon afterwards the whistle blew.

St. Lawrence, alumni must realize, is no longer the despised team which was once only scheduled for practice games. Not only were their men heavier than ours, and five pounds on such a field gives a tremendous advantage, but, as they have not in former years, they showed the effects of efficient coaching, by playing the game hard and skillfully.

If those who saw the game were satisfied with our team's showing, as they indeed were, what could they think of the support of the college body? Men who can stand on the bleachers, unsheltered from the raw west wind which swept the rain and snow biting into their faces thruout a game in which their team was being beaten out of victory and still show such enthusiasm as did the Hamilton band of rooters, deserve all the credit which it is possible to give. Alumni who so proudly refer to the "good old days" of Hamilton spirit can afford to come back to find out that these are the golden days of Hamilton cheering. "Bump" Jones deserves unstinted praise for his efforts in securing organized enthusiasm.

Individually the team played well, but Perry and Robinson deserve especial credit, particularly for their defensive work. Time and again, either one or both of these men would be the last to rise out of the mud from under a pile of bodies. Thompson also played well on the defensive and made a very pretty tackle of Williams who, after eluding two Hamilton men, seemed certain of a long gain. Knox, who never pretended to be a kicker, got off his punts cleverly regardless of the slippery ball and the fact that he was hurried in nearly every attempt by the St. Lawrence line. His catching and running back of punts saved a larger score by St. Lawrence.

The lineup was as follows:

ST. LAWRENCE.	HAMILTON.
Right end.
Kuhn.	Roberts, Perry.
Right tackle.
Ward.	McLean.

A QUIET HALLOWE'EN.

Profiting by the sad experience of last year the Freshmen and Sophomores made the annual hallowe'en party a quiet and lawful affair. The two classes met at the Gym. and marched arm in arm down town. The village police force strengthened by ten men was needlessly frightened when he saw this formidable army approaching, for no attempt was made to do any damage. Calls were made on all the Faculty and those who were at home made short addresses.

The two classes then came back on the Hill and built a big fire in the woods to the north of the Campus. The remainder of the evening was spent in eating, drinking, and singing around the fire. The best of spirit prevailed between the two classes and several class yells were exchanged.

As a consequence of the assemblage and the mystic dispersion with the wierd dreizehn incantation of D. T. on the evening of Thursday last, Lewis, '13, has become a knight of the champagne cork, a purveyor of the vile but much abused "makings," a somewhat recalcitrant valet de chambre, and lastly an impromptu campus entertainer and amateur outdoor vaudeville comedian. Incidentally it may be here stated that all D. T. brethren, alumni and active members, and also Fanny Harper, may receive said "makings" by applying to the much-epitheted neophyte.

Wenigmann's return to college necessitated the selection of but one new member to fill the places left vacant by the departure of McKee and Rodger, ex-'13. Lewis was chosen in order that each crowd might have had at least two men elected from 1913. In the spring the Freshmen will be chosen, as formerly, according to rule and initiated with the same instrument of torture.

Without betraying any sacred secrets, it is presumably safe to state that Lewis will cross the "burning sands" in the near future. However, in order to acquire this signal honor, Lewis first delendus est.
